

Dr Kathryn Smith

I am a Clinical Psychologist with a special interest in Paediatric Clinical Psychology. I have previously worked at the Hospital for Sick Children in Glasgow for 10 years where I worked closely with the Respiratory team delivering teaching & training in psychosocial aspects of asthma. I also undertook direct work with children and their families in helping them cope with the challenge of managing asthma.