

John Furness

I am Dr John Furness. I trained in the North East and worked at Northumbria healthcare for 3 years before moving to Darlington. I have been there 15 years. I also help to run Newborn and Paediatric Life Support courses. I am a dad, violinist, children's rugby coach and Sheffield United supporter. My articles are descriptions of what I do about asthma. It doesn't mean they are correct. Here is a photograph of me playing the violin. It shows you that when I'm concentrating I look miserable and grumpy.
