

Samantha Berry

I'm Sam. I am 17 years old and I'm currently studying for my A-levels. I have had asthma for most of my life. I have always had exceptional education with how to control and manage my asthma (mainly with my asthma plan). In the future, I hope to become a nurse where I hope to give back and care for people the way I have always been looked after.